□ Review and ensure you understand the financial aspects of hosting described in the Guide, including these reminders and additional notes:

- REGISTRATION CHECKS. From each participating director, the only ‘income’ for PMEA Adjudication:
 - Examine the checks as received for expiration dates (i.e. ‘Void in 60 Days from Issue’) and forward them a few at a time as received to the Adjudication Chair for processing. Don’t hang on to them to forward all at once, due to this expiration concern.
 - Checks must be made payable to PMEA. They are not to be deposited in your activity account or with your parent booster group, but are to be forwarded to the Adjudication Chair to process in a timely manner and forward to PMEA for depositing.
 - Submit any remaining checks with your final report.

- HOSPITALITY EXPENSES. This may result in personal cash outlay or being invoiced. Hosts seem to only have difficulty staying within budget when they attempt to provide lunch/dinner to a large number of student volunteers, or attempt to provide an extensive breakfast and lunch menu to the adjudicators and even a small number of volunteers. Hosts may indeed choose to do either or both, which is fine, but must be prepared to supplement the budgeted funds if needed from the host honorarium or from the activity account or booster group. Submit all receipts and invoices attached to the Host Expense Form as part of your final report.

- ADJUDICATOR LODGING. Not common; must be approved in advance by the Adjudicator Chair. Communicate your needs in this regard, in advance; please do not act on your own and over-commit funds. It is your choice of how to handle payment, either pay for the room yourself and get the receipt to attach to the Host Expense Form, or, the adjudicator pays for the room and submits the receipt to you attached to the Adjudicator Expense Form. Either way, it would be submitted as part of your final report.

- CD RECORDING. If you are using an outside vendor, the vendor should provide you with an invoice for the services rendered, either before leaving the site that day or mailed to you shortly afterwards. If more convenient, give the vendor the Adjudication Chair’s address to mail the invoice directly to him.

- CD’S. If you are doing the recordings with school equipment and personnel and need to purchase CD’s for the event, attach that receipt to the Host Expense Form.

- OTHER EXPENSES. Hosts should have no other significant expenses for an MPA. All other notable items for each adjudication context will be provided by the Adjudication Chair as described in the Guide for that MPA. (I.e. cassette tapes, medals, certificates, plaques, etc.)

- REIMBURSEMENTS & PAYMENTS. When hosts submit their final report to the Adjudication Chair within one week of the event, the goal is for the Adjudication Chair to process all data and checks to PMEA in a timely manner in order for PMEA to issue checks for reimbursement of all host expenses and for payment of all host and adjudicator honoraria and expenses within thirty days of the event.

- HOST EXPENSE FORM ‘CHECK PAYABLE TO’. Hosts are reminded to indicate on the Host Expense Form exactly who the check for the Host Honorarium is to be made payable to (activity account or parent booster group with the accurate name provided), or if it will be used instead for one registration fee or as described in the Guide for that MPA. Same with the Hospitality Expenses---indicate if the check should be payable to the host personally, activity account, parent booster group, school cafeteria, caterer, etc., or more than one check to a combination of those.

All involved with PMEA, especially the participating directors and their students, join the Adjudication Chair and the State Officers and Board in thanking YOU for hosting an MPA! The readily-apparent benefits of hosting FOR the host----scheduling priority for the home district, less class time missed, honorarium earned and bus transportation $ saved----truly do pale to the tangible and intangible benefits provided BY the host in enabling this educational and artistic experience to happen for ALL the ensembles, students and directors participating. BRAVO, and THANK YOU!!!
