

PMEA District 1 School Directory

Festival Label List for Membership Proofreading

by Paul Fox, Treasurer

The following public and private school data was downloaded from a link at the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) website. This is the all-essential information that was used for generation of labels for the first mailing of local PMEA festivals (2004-2005). Please help us “fix” mistakes and find missing information.

It is sorted by school district area (column 2) and then alphabetically by school building (column 3).

The two-letter code defines the county (column 4), and the EAST/WEST designation is for PMEA “split” festivals: District SHS and JHS Band East/West, JHS Chorus East/West, Sing Fest East/West and Elementary Band Allegheny East/West. Perry HS was switched (back) to WEST. Are there any other changes?

The most important data for your review is the level code for District 1 festivals (column 6)—
 E = Elementary Sing Fest and Band Fest (Grades 5-6), J = Junior High (Grades 7-9) and S = Senior High (Grades 10-12). If the building is a primary school (Grade 4 and under), there should be no “E” classification. Some middle schools are currently receiving mailings for both EL Fests and JHS Festivals, and many High Schools also receive both “J” and “S” notifications.

Private schools are classified by the school district’s area in which they reside (what public school entity which may assist in pupil transportation). The PDE data did not define grade levels, so many small schools may actually be early-childhood or day-care and therefore should “lose” the “E” designation. Please tell me!

Street addresses should be complete. According to the U.S. Post Office, all addresses should have a street number or post office box number (no general “Main Street” listing is permitted for bulk mailings). In many cases, “tradition” and history may dictate that you have to call the post office to find the “official” address (or look on the “junk mail” you receive that contains the complete address including zip plus four code).

Please check your school(s) carefully. Refer to changes by bolded line number. Send corrections or additions to Paul Fox via e-mail (pkfox@bellatlantic.net) or mail-in the form on the back cover (attach details).

The deadline for revisions to be made to festival mailings in 2005-2006 is August 1, 2005.

Thank you in advance for all of your assistance!
