Active membership in the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association is open to individuals engaged in music teaching or other music-related educational work. Retired membership is open to former PMEA/NAfME members who have retired from teaching or other music-related educational work. Collegiate membership is open to music students in teacher education programs at college/university level who are not employed full time as teachers. Introductory membership is open to persons in their first year (for one year only) of full-time music teaching or other music-related education work who have been collegiate members during the preceding fiscal year.

Please see PMEA's Bylaws for further information.
