

Modern Band 101: New and Review!

NEW Virtual Professional Learning Course for instrumental, vocal and/or general music teachers at elementary, middle and high schools

Pennsylvania Music Teachers – Sign Up Today! (Limited Seating)

Date(s) and Time(s)

- Tuesday, January 19 from 6:30-8:30PM ET
- Tuesday, January 26 from 6:30-8:30PM ET
- Tuesday, February 2 from 6:30-8:30PM ET

When registering and participating with this virtual course, it's important to attend all sessions. To provide additional assistance, a 30-minute Q&A/demo period will occur after each session (participation optional).

Register Now!

No Cost to Participants
PDE Act 48 Hours Available

<https://www.littlekidsrock.org/pa-teachers-join-the-band/>

This hands-on course serves as an introduction to (or review of) Modern Band and the Music as a Second Language pedagogy and will address:

- Core values of Little Kids Rock such as Approximation, Scaffolding, Musical Decision Making, Iconic Notation, and Culturally Sustaining teaching technique
- Instruction on guitar, keyboard, drums, vocals, bass, and technology
- The basic philosophy of Music as a Second Language® Participants will also use their new musical skills to compose and perform an original song in a collaborative setting.

What You'll Get

- New virtual strategies focusing on instrumental instruction, improvisation, and songwriting using music production
- Extended Trial (3-6 months) of Soundtrap
- Curricular projects & activities for all your music students
- Unlimited access to new curricular materials and online resources
- Participation in a community of more than 3,000 music teachers from across the country

Questions?

Email us at training@littlekidsrock.org

Find out more about Little Kids Rock at littlekidsrock.org