

MUSIC EDUCATION WORKSHOPS

Seton Hill University's Music Education Program, in partnership with Seton Hill University's Community Music Arts Program, is offering three summer workshops for music educators.

The events are available to both in-service and preservice music educators. Graduate level credit, ACT 48 credit, & Leveled Certification Options are available.

Three amazing opportunities.
Three ways to continuing learning.

School of Visual & Performing Arts

Contact Us

- Michelle Walters,
Community Arts
walters@setonhill.edu
- Dr. Jessica Vaughan-Marra,
Music Education
jvaughanmarra@setonhill.edu

Event Location

Program, Box 390F, One Seton Hill Dr.,
Greensburg, PA 15601

August 2022

Beginning Teacher Bootcamp

August 2022

SUMMER GENERAL MUSIC WORKSHOP

Description

This one-day workshop is to provide preservice and novice music educators with “refreshers” on essential content-specific pedagogy typically needed within PreK-12 music education curricula.

Date
August 2, 2022
9 AM – 4 PM

Instructors

- Dr. Jessica Vaughan-Marra
(Coordinator of Music Education)
- Dr. Chris Marra
(Director of Instrumental Activities)

SIGN UP HERE

Description

This two-day intensive workshop featured local general music educators with key specializations in Orff, Kodaly, Music Learning Theory, and Dalcroze Eurhythmics to offer you a two-day intensive workshop. Topics will address curriculum and lesson planning within these key elementary general music methodologies as well as special focus sessions on assessment and interdisciplinary approaches for your classroom.

Date
August 3rd & 4th, 2022
9 AM – 5 PM

Presenters

- Shawn Funk
(Retired – Fox Chapel School District)
- Jaime Rea (Moon Area School District)
- Charlotte Rudolph
(South Fayette School District)
- Dr. Jessica Vaughan-Marra
(Seton Hill University)
- Dave Verno (Gateway School District)

SIGN UP HERE

July 2022

GIML ELEMENTARY GENERAL MUSIC LEVEL 1 PDL

Description

Elementary General Music Professional Development and Learning Community (PDLC) introduces music educators to effective methods for teaching music to children utilizing Music Learning Theory (MLT). Participants who enroll in a PDLC program learning about theory and practice as well as develop lesson plans and activities utilizing the content from the course.

Date
July 11 – 22, 2022
(Monday – Friday)

Instructors & Host

- Jen Doiron (Burnham School)
- Dr. Jill Reese (SUNY Fredonia)
- Dr. Jessica Vaughan-Marra
(Faculty Advisor & Site Supervisor)

SIGN UP HERE